FOR STATE PRINTER.

The proprietor of this journal announces himself as a candida e for State Printer, and will make his b st endeavors to get on to the Fail

There is a good deal of aexiety all over the State about having a strong head for the Republican ticket. The main thing just now that keeps us anxious is the tail of the ticket. Every good ticket ought to have a strong tail as well as a head. The office of State Printer is at the tail of the ticket. That's where we want to be. While a good many thoughtless people g ve but little heed to the tail of a State ticket. It is the only place on the ticket which the law provides any requirement for. Any cantank-erous ass can run for Governor, and so on down, but the State Printer

This powder never varies A marvel of purity, strength and wholesomeness. More economical than the ordinary kinds, and cannot be sold in competion with the multitude of low test, short weight, alum or phosp to powders. Sold must have a practical knowledge of the handswork of type sticking and be up in the "art preservative" acquired that knowledge by hard labor in working until after midnight trying to get the party there on time.

Having been engaged for several years in shouting and pulling wires, until the sweat relled down his back, for other people, it has lately occurred to him to labor a little for his own benefit. If nominated and elected the APPEAL will be made a better newspaper than ever, and continue to sound the toesin, etc., for the Republican party. If beaten the APPEAL will continue sounding the same old toesin and vociferating for the regular ticket

In this connection we take the hberty of stating that Mr. J. C. Harlow, the present incumbent of the office, is also a candidate for the nomination. He has filled it in a most creditable manner, and would continue to do so if re elected. No well grounded fault has ever been found with Mr. Harlow's administration. Any confest now going on between Mr. Harlow and the editor of this journal will end the moment the Carson Convention adjourns,

The motto of this journal is as unchangeable as its subscription prices, and has always been, "Bury your dead, gentlemen, and take up the march."

Mrs. Cleveland and the Policeman

The policeman at the door of the church offered Mrs. Cleveland an umbrella, under which she might safely reach her carriage through the rain. The average woman, under the circumstances, would have accepted the umbrella with a grateful "thank you," and carried it over herself to the carriage, but Mrs. Cleveland isn't an average woman. Instead of merely accepting the umbrella, she accepted the true and gallant bluecoat as well, took his arm as if he had been a Minister Plenipotentiary and En voy Extraordinary, and went with him to her carriage. Of course the policeman is today in a state of delirious complimentedness which totally unfits him for duty, but he will recover with careful pursing. -Washington Critic.

To Tame the Wildest Horse.

The Mining and Scientific Press sublishes the following method of taming the wildest horses: "Take finely grated horse easter, oils rhodium and cummin, keep these in separate bottles well corked; put some of the oil of cummin on your hand and approach the horse on the windy side. He will then move toward you; then rub some of the cummin on his nose, give him a little of the castor on anything he likes, and get eight or ten drops of the oil rhodium on his tongue, you can then get him to do auything you like. Be kind and attentive to the animal and your control HAVING PURCHASED OF is certain.

The Possible Rate War.

The Local Passenger Association of San Francisco has been declared off and there is a possibility of another rate war between here and the East. There will be an effort to reorganized. Should that be a failure the result may be an increase of travel.
